TERMS & CONDITIONS

A completed risk assessment & proof of valid public liability insurance to the value of not less than £5 million must be submitted to the organisers BEFORE each event. Failure to produce either could result in you being asked to vacate. No refund will be given.

The organisers cannot be held responsible for circumstances beyond their control which may lead to the event being disrupted, postponed or in severe cases cancelled. Such circumstances could be adverse weather, civil unrest etc. No refund will be given but every effort will be made to continue or re-schedule the event at the earliest opportunity.

Stallholders are responsible for the safety, protection & security of all personnel, equipment, stock & items brought onto site in connection with trading activities. The organisers will not be held responsible in any way for losses, damage, theft, acts of vandalism or any such eventuality to stallholder's property or person.

Stallholders will also be held responsible for any accidents or damage to other persons or property caused by any part of their stall or trading activities. The organiser reserves the right to refuse entry or admission and has the final decision on acceptance and site location.

I have read the terms & conditions and, by signing, agree to be bound by them.
